

88.6 Plenty Valley FM Training

PVFM Introduction to Broadcasting

Duration 40 hours over 8 weeks
(3 hrs tuition per week and 2 hrs buddy time per week)

February 2021

Information night in the last Wednesday of January
Course starts first Wednesday in February

June 2021

Information session second Wednesday of June
Course commences the third Wednesday of June

To add value to your PVFM membership PVFM provide free professional development sessions throughout the year. Professional development sessions are divided into a combination of evening, weekend and week-day sessions.

- Introduction to Podcasting – half day
- Production (Recording and Editing) - full day
- Introduction to Recording and Editing – full day
- Advanced Recording and Editing – (For those with a bit more experience) – half day
- Interviewing - half day and full day
- Emergency Response Training - half day
- Program review and advanced presentation skills – full day
- Introduction to writing for radio - half day
- Advanced writing for radio – full day
- Marketing your program - half day
- Media law and Copyright - half day
- News collation and presentation- full day
- Write narration and material for current affairs, features and documentaries - full day
- Coordinate an outside broadcast - full day
- Work effectively in the screen and media industry – half day
- Creative and critical thinking - half day
- Governance Training - half day

PVFM can also customise training for community groups depending on your interests.

Community Media Training Organisation

PVFM applies for funding each year to run Nationally accredited training courses and Non accredited Pathways programs.

Accredited

- Certificate III in Screen and Media
- Certificate IV in Screen and Media
- Skills set Statements of Attainment

Non accredited Pathways programs

- Emergency Readiness
- Advanced Recording and Editing

Contact manager@pvfm.org.au and you will be put in touch with our Training Coordinator who will respond to your enquiry.

Training information can be emailed to you upon request.

88.6 Plenty Valley FM is located at:

288 Childs Rd,
Mill Park,
Vic. 3082
Phone 03 9404-2111
Email: manager@pvfm.org.au